16th Annual "A NIGHT ON THE TOWN" BROADWAY THEATER TRIP TO NEW YORK

MAY 30TH TO JUNE 3RD, 2012

WEDNESDAY: You will be met at LaGuardia in New York with private transportation into Manhattan and the historic Algonquin Hotel, site of the great literary round table of the 1920s. The hotel is within walking distance to Times Square, Broadway Theaters, Central Park, Fifth Avenue shopping, and Grand Central Station. The afternoon is free for you to explore or just relax until dinner.

Tonight meet George & Sharon Harter and fellow travelers for cocktails & dinner at SARDI's, an easy walk from the hotel. This timeless restaurant has hosted opening night parties for Broadway shows all the way back to Oklahoma in 1943. After dinner we'll walk next door to the St. James Theater to see great Harry Connick, Jr. in a revival of Alan J. Lerner & Burton Lane's 1964 musical ON A CLEAR DAY YOU CAN SEE FOREVER. Don't miss the opportunity to see this amazing talent live and in-person.

THURSDAY: This morning George will conduct a walking tour of the Broadway Theater District with fascinating stories as we walk in the footsteps of Rodgers & Hammerstein, Ethel Merman, John Raitt, Irving Berlin, Lerner & Loewe and all the Broadway greats of the past. Afterward we'll meet at a Broadway rehearsal hall for a special program designed to give you a peek inside Broadway. The rest of the day is at leisure.

TONIGHT ITS YOUR CHOICE for a Broadway show. Perhaps you have not yet seen Jersey Boys or The Lion King. Maybe you'd like something new such as Bonnie & Clyde, or one of the very popular revivals like the Tony award winning Anything Goes.

FRIDAY: Today will be left free for you to enjoy New York on your own. However, as an option for you today, George & Sharon will take you aboard a private coach for a visit to the most popular sites in New York City. Highlights will include: Central Park, Lower East Side & Chinatown, Greenwich Village, site of the World Trade Center, Battery Park, Wall Street, Empire State Building & Grand Central Sta.

Tonight you have tickets to the hottest show on Broadway since The Producers, THE BOOK OF MORMON, winner of 9 Tony awards last June. Jon Stewart said, "This show was so good it made me angry". It's about two young newly-graduated Mormon missionaries who get sent to Uganda, and high-jinx ensue. Explicit language and anti-religious content.

SATURDAY: Today is free for museums and your choice of sight-seeing. Tonight, we celebrate our time together with cocktails & dinner at THE GRAND TIER at the Metropolitan Opera House. Seated beneath the massive Chagall Paintings, one would be hard-pressed to find a more elegant & sophisticated dining spot for a Saturday night in New York. After dinner its the Vivian Beaumont Theater for WARHORSE, the tale of a horse conscripted into World War I and his young owner trying to find him. This is an extraordinary play with breathtaking imagery including life-size horse puppets. Genius isn't too strong a word to describe this astonishing production ~ Daily Telegraph.

SUNDAY: We'll check out of the hotel this morning and board transportation to LaGuardia for your flights home. The MTH motor coach will depart the hotel at 9:00 AM.
